Faculty Affairs Newsflash

Welcome to Faculty Affairs Newsflash, the monthly faculty affairs newsletter. Newsflash is a synopsis of highlights from offices and programs supporting the faculty, curated by the faculty affairs team in the provost's office. Be sure to look for the next Faculty Affairs Newsflash in your email inbox in August.

OFFICE OF THE PROVOST

Faculty annual review notes

- Course evaluation surveys of students close May 8. Spring survey summaries load into Faculty Success May 9.
- Clemson uses Faculty Success for faculty review systems (Annual reviews, TPR and PTR).
- Full-time faculty activity reporting of AY23-24 activities is open for the annual review workflow, which launched May 6.

For faculty entering activities into the Faculty Success system please note the following has been loaded for you: directed student learning, scheduled teaching, proposals entered through InfoEd, known contracts on campus (project awards and expenditures). In addition, some faculty service and professional development activities completed on campus auto-populates.

Annual reviews focus on activities occurring between May 16, 2023, and May 15, 2024.

If you see any inconsistencies or incorrect data in your Faculty Success Activities, please contact dmadmin@clemson.edu.

The University community of students and scholars thrives because of all you do - thank you for taking the time to document your contributions to Clemson, higher education and the academy.

Save the dates: Fall faculty kick-off programs

Several essential meetings, professional development sessions and student engagement activities are planned for faculty this August.

From August 14 through 20, before classes start, multiple programs will welcome faculty to the University and provide tools for success.

Honorifics and awards

As you prepare your summer projects, please consider developing an application for an honorific award in your discipline. Some examples of awards that have Summer/early Fall deadlines include:

Faculty Early Career Development Program (CAREER)

Fulbright Scholar Program

Guggenheim Fellowship

Jefferson Science Fellowships

National Humanities Center Fellowship

For support and further information please contact the Director of Faculty Awards and Honorifics, Tom Kealy.

OFFICE OF TEACHING EFFECTIVENESS AND INNOVATION

Pearce Center Service-Learning Faculty Fellows program

This year-long faculty development program provides an opportunity for selected faculty members to learn best practices in service-learning and community engagement and to integrate service-learning into their teaching, research and public service work.

To be considered for the 2024-25 Service-Learning Fellows program, please complete the Google Form by Friday, May 31.

Pulse survey, Faculty Grow recap

- Please take this short "pulse" survey that helps gauge faculty successes, concerns and opportunities while pursuing professional goals.
- The Office of Faculty ADVANCEment recently hosted its inaugural Faculty Grow Workshop, with approximately 50 faculty participants. Read the event recap here.

Conflict Resolution Workshop: May 15 (location change)

The Ombuds Office and Office of Faculty ADVANCEment are hosting the last workshop of the four-part Conflict Resolution Series.

The workshop focuses on four difficult situations at work: when you need to mediate between colleagues; when you have to deliver unpopular news; when you dislike someone you work with and when you need to give or receive negative feedback. View the event calendar listing for more details and please note the location change to Cooper Library Brown Room (room 416).

Research grant proposal assistance

Faculty members needing assistance with larger proposals ($1.5 million and over), whether proposal development, editing or graphics, please submit a Request for Service.
